A BIG loan helps to ensure victory. A big loan will also shorten the War. It will help to save life; it will help to save Europe; it will help to save civilization.

—The Prime Minister of England.

And This:

The greatest immediate service the American people can render in this war for universal liberty throughout the world is to furnish the means for its vigorous prosecution. This bond issue is the first step. I earnestly bespeak the co-operation of EVERY CITIZEN throughout the length and breadth of the land in this great service of patriotism.

WM. G. McADOO,
The Secretary of the Treasury.

Therefore: BUY A LIBERTY BOND

IT IS THE UNIVERSAL SERVICE THAT Almost Every Man Woman and Child may Render.

The WAR is on us. The MEN are going to the front. YOUR money, all our money must be thrown, if necessary, into the struggle to stop the war quickly. Do not dally with the danger or duty. "Better Liberty Bond than Bondage." Just now the Germans fear our money more than our men. Shame on us if we do not show them the power of both backed by American patriotism.

"It is more precious that AMERICA should live than that we AMERICANS should ignobly survive."

Do not wait for the Committee or earnest hearted Solicitors to hunt you up---BUY A LIBERTY BOND TO-DAY.

PRESIDENT WILSON TELLS

What We are Fighting For In World War.

The War policy of the United States, as outlined by President Wilson in his note to Russia, was made public. The President says:

"No territory must change hands except for the purpose of securing those who inhabit it a fair chance of life and liberty.

"No indemnities must be insisted on except those that constitute payment for the manifest wrongs done.

"No readjustment of power must be made except such as will tend to secure the future welfare and happiness of its people."

The President also declared against the German proposal to restore that "status quo" before the war.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 8, 1907.

R. F. D. 7.

To the Hon. David H. Kincheloe, Representative in Congress from the Second Congressional district.

Dear Sir:

I believe that at least one-third of the farm labor has left here, Christian county, in the last three years. Most of this exodus has occurred since last September. Then outside of Hopkinsville, Pembroke and West Kentucky Hospital there are 1969 men between the ages 21 and 31 that have been registered as required by the selective draft. I know of farms of 200 or 300 acres where from two to four men are wanted and there is no hired help on the farms, there being only one man, the owner, on these places.

With these conditions, is it wise for the Government to force, or even permit, these drafted men to enlist just at this season of the year when there will be so much food needed for the immense army being raised?

I thought I would call your attention to this matter and get you to see the proper authorities and show them the conditions existing here. If anything ought to be done about this, I believe that you and Senator Ollie James will do it, as our Congressman and our Senator get what they go after.

Yours truly,

JNO. C. GARY.

Prominent Man Killed.

John L. Helm, Sr., was hit and killed by an automobile truck at 5th and Main streets Thursday morning. Mr. Helm was a son of Gov. Helm, twice the Chief Executive of the State, and was prominent in financial circles in Louisville.

A Pat of Butter.

One pat or serving of butter is a little thing—there are about 64 of them in a pound.

In many households the butter left on the plates probably would equal one pat, or one-fourth of an ounce, daily—scraped off into the garbage pail or washed off in the dish pan.

But if every one of our 20,000,000 housekeepers should waste one-fourth of an ounce of butter daily, on the average, it would mean 312,500 pounds a day—114,062,500 pounds a year.

To make this butter would take 265,261,560 gallons of milk—or the product of over half a million cows.

But butter isn't eaten or wasted in every home, some one objects. Very well. Say only 1 in 100 homes waste even a pat of butter a day—over 1,000,000 pounds wasted. Still intolerable when butter is so valuable a food and every bit of butter left on a plate is so useful in cookery.

The United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or your State agricultural college will tell you how to use every bit of butter in cookery.

Historic Little Island.

On the little, misty, storm-swept Island of Iona, in the Hebrides to the west of Scotland, lie the ruins of the monastery whence came the men who Christianized the British Isles. The island has changed but little from what it must have been in those remote times. The same dense fogs still veil it, rising from the warm gulf stream, the same westerly gales howl over it, and in the little sheltered grassy hollows the simple people live and till the soil, as they did in the days of St. Columba, who founded the monastery. Their implements may be more modern, but they are the same silent, kindly Celts.

KY. EDITORS TO BE ENTERTAINED

Local Organization Arrange Fine Programme For Visitors.

For the first time in its history, the Kentucky Press Association is holding a summer meeting in Louisville, beginning last Monday evening. It will be the annual session for the discussion of topics of interest to the members and for the election of officers and transaction of routine business. The Convention and Publicity League will co-operate with the Louisville Board of Trade and Retail Merchants' Association in entertainment of the visitors.

A constant round of wholesome pleasure has been provided for the editors and their wives. Every moment of the time not occupied by business sessions will be utilized in making the visitors acquainted with the varied attractions of the metropolis of the State. A unique souvenir programme has been prepared by members of the Ben Franklin Club of Louisville as a token of the regard in which that organization holds its fellow printers of the State.

The convention opened; on Monday evening with an informal reception by the Retail Merchants' Association in the Auditorium of the Seelbach Hotel. President Hayden Moise will have as assistants on his reception committee Mayor Buschmeyer, Fred M. Sackett, president of the Board of Trade, Charles A. Weber, president of the Convention League, and Wade Shelton, president of the Ben Franklin Club. There will be a recital under the direction of the music department of the Stewart Dry Goods Company.

Each morning of the week will be devoted to business sessions. Following adjournment at noon Tuesday the visitors will be the guests of the Central Consumers' Company at a luncheon. On Tuesday evening they will be entertained at Fontaine Ferry Park by the Convention League.

Wednesday afternoon the editorial party will be given a tour of Louisville's industrial district, under the direction of the Board of Trade. The visitors will begin this trip at the mills of the Ballard & Ballard Company, where they will be the guests at a luncheon.

On Wednesday night the First Regiment Band will give a concert in the Seelbach auditorium in honor of the editors. This entertainment will be followed by dancing.

A boat ride, under the direction of the Convention League, will make up the programme for Thursday evening. On Thursday evening the association members will be the guests of the Louisville Paper Company at a theater party at Keith's. The convention will adjourn at noon Friday.

Mrs. Lulie Cloud.

Mrs. Lulie Cloud, whose illness was briefly mentioned in last week's Journal, died at her home on South Main street Thursday night of last week, of intestinal obstruction, after an illness of two or three days. Mrs. Cloud was 70 years of age and was born in Virginia. She came with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Chiles T. Barker, to this county, in early life.

Mrs. Cloud was a deeply consecrated Christian woman, having been a consistent member of the Methodist church. She was greatly beloved by her large circle of friends and her death is the occasion of great sorrow. She is survived by five children: Mrs. B. W. Williams, Miss Mary Cloud, Mrs. W. R. Dudley, Miss Ellen Cloud and W. B. Cloud. Her pastor, Rev. W. P. Gordon, conducted funeral services Friday afternoon and the burial was in Rosedale Cemetery.—Pembroke Journal.

PEMBROKE BOYS' CLUB

Elects Officers and Makes a Fine Showing—Bank Gives Boys Duroc Pigs.

County Agent James A. McKenzie was busy at Pembroke Saturday. The Boys' Agricultural Club of Pembroke is a reality and a live reality at that. Goebel Bond is its president, Henry Hampton vice president, and Goebel Gray secretary-treasurer. The constitution and bylaws are as prescribed by the State Agricultural Club. The club will meet on the first Saturday of each month.

Potato, corn and poultry clubs were organized in connection with the agricultural club. Already the club is in active work. Ten members of the club have received Duroc pigs given by the Bank of Pembroke. These will be cared for under the direction of Mr. McKenzie. Everybody wishes the Pembroke boys the greatest of success.

Chinese Crisis.

Gen. Chang Hsun, formerly military governor of Anhwei Province, has delivered an ultimatum to president Li Uan Hung demanding the dissolution of parliament within forty-eight hours. The president has refused to accede to this demand unless such action may be taken in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.
